STORYTELLING & SPIRITUALITY:
CONNECTING TO THE SOURCE

SAT 3RD DEC 2005, 10-4PM

ST GEORGE'S WEST CHURCH, 58 SHANDWICK PL. EDINBURGH

Introductory Presentation

DONALD SMITH - STORIES OF SPIRITUAL NOURISHMENT

Will give a presentation exploring three kinds of stories which offer spiritual nourishment -- traditional stories that reflect inner dimensions, personal life stories through which we constantly seek pattern, and collective master narratives that we might inhabit.

Poet, writer, theatre director and founding member of the Scottish Storytelling Forum and of Edinburgh's Guid Crack Club, Donald is currently Director of the Scottish Storytelling Centre at The Netherbow.

WORKSHOPS with

MIO SHAPLEY : "The Tree that was a Harp" : Music and Stories

Mio Shapley will share traditional Japanese stories with the touch of Zen, accompanied by games. These she enriches with her playing of the Clarsach.

Her stories inspire peace, tranquillity and respect for all of creation.

Please come along and enjoy!

DAVID CAMPBELL

Founder of the Scottish Storytelling Forum, writer, producer, poet and formerly teacher, David travels over the world Storytelling.

JAMES SPENCE - "The Storyteller within"

Whether you've never told a story before, or you're a bit of a yarnster, James invites you into the magic.

"When you tell somebody a story, you really take them on a journey." Stanley Robertson.

James tells his stories in the earthy Borders' Scots of his upbringing.

Full-time storyteller for the past 3 years. Inspired by master storyteller Stanley Robertson.

Also an award-winning and published poet.
